

Kentucky Veterans Hall Of Fame Class of 2015 Inductees

Lieutenant Colonel Eddie Adcock, USAF, Nebo, Hopkins County
Sergeant Eddie Riley Brierly, USMC, Maysville, Mason County
Corporal Jim Claypool, PhD., US Army, Park Hills, Kenton County
Army Specialist 5, H. B Deatherage, U.S. Army, Villa Hills, Kenton County
Corporal Robert Flick (Deceased), USMC, Hebron, Boone County
Major General Richard Frymire, USNavy & USMC, Madisonville, Hopkins Cty
Chief Master Sergeant Jenny L. Goins, USAF, Frankfort, Franklin County
Petty Officer 2nd Class James Hales, US Navy, Cold Spring, Campbell County
Captain Jenean Hampton, USAF, Bowling Green, Warren County
Sergeant Charles Hinds, U.S. Army, Frankfort, Franklin County
Lieutenant Colonel Joseph Hinds, USAF, Florence, Boone County
Corporal Walter Hoots, U S Army, Columbia, Adair County. Walter served in WWII - The youngest living WWII veteran in Kentucky - age 87
Lieutenant David Jarrett, US Navy, Elizabethtown, Hardin County
Specialist 4 Robert Manning, US Army, Louisville, Jefferson County
Corporal E-4 David Monroe, US Army, Hebron, Boone County
Lieutenant Colonel David Price, US Army, Frankfort, Franklin County
Sergeant First Class E-7 Carlos Pugh, U S Army, Frankfort, Franklin County
Master Sergeant Ronald Rice, USAF, Maysville, Mason County
Specialist 4 John Salyers, U S Army, Erlanger, Kenton County
Major Mark See, USAF, Alexandria, Campbell County
E-5 Rudy Stone, U S Navy, Madisonville, Hopkins County
Corporal Aubrey Walker, U S Army, Madisonville, Hopkins County
Staff Sergeant John Michael Ward, USAF, Alexandria, Campbell County
Lieutenant Colonel Anthony Warren, US Army, Elizabethtown, Hardin County
Lieutenant Henry Wells, MD, US Navy, Hebron, Boone County