Valley of Covington Member Inducted Into the Kentucky Veterans Hall of Fame Inaugural Class 2014

On Wednesday, March 12, Brother Ron Allari (KCCH) was inducted into the Veterans Hall of Fame at a series of ceremonies in Frankfort, Kentucky. Brother Ron is a retired Major in the U.S. Army and he is a Vietnam Veteran.

Aside from his service to our country while he was in uniform, Ron has continued to help those who still serve. Upon his retirement as a commercial airline pilot in 2005, Ron created a Veteran's Service Office for the City of Alexandria. He has served as the Volunteer Veterans' Service Officer ever since.

Ron's work quickly spread and he now helps our veterans from all over the Northern Kentucky Region. This job requires his presence in his office and takes a good bit of his personal time as well.

Ron was accompanied at this ceremony by his wife Cheryl and their daughter Chanelle Allari Huesing. Joining Ron and his family from the Scottish Rite, were SGIG Roger Barnett (picture with Ron), Everett Harrison (33), and Vice-President of the Covington Scottish Rite Foundation Kevin Sell (KCCH). Valley of Covington members also played key roles in the ceremony with Brother and Kenton County Sheriff Chuck Korzenborn playing taps, and Brother and Boone County Deputy Sheriff Josh Quinn playing the bag pipes.
